|F#m(Em) |D(C) |E(D) |A(G)

Verse 1:

|A(G) |A(G)
Pretty fair maid was in her garden
|F#m(Em) / / E(D) |A(G)
When a stranger came a-riding by
|F#m(Em) |D(C)
He came up to the gate and called her
|E(D) |A(G)
Said pretty fair maid would you be my bride

Verse 2:

|A(G) |A(G)
Said I've a true love who's in the army
|F#m(Em) / / E(D) |A(G)
And he's been gone for seven long years
|F#m(Em) |D(C)
And if he's gone for seven years longer
|E(D) |A(G)
I'll still be waiting for him here

Verse 3:

|A(G) |A(G)
Perhaps he's on some watercourse drowning
|F#m(Em) / / E |A(G)
Perhaps he's on some battlefield slain
|F#m(Em) |D(C) |E(D) |A(G)
Perhaps he's to a fair girl married And you may never see him a-gain

Pretty Fair Maid in the Garden in A - 2

Verse 4:

Well if he's drowned, I hope he's happy

Or if he's on some battlefield slain

And if he's to some fair girl married

I'll love the girl that married him

Verse 5:

He took his hand out of his pocket

And on his finger he wore a golden ring

And when she saw that band a-shining

A brand new song her heart did sing

Verse 6:

And then he threw his arms all a-round her

Kisses gave her one, two, three

Said I'm your true and loving soldier

That's come back home to marry thee
