D F#m Em A7 D

D F#m Em A7 D
In the early mornin' rain, with a dollar in my hand,

Em A7 D
And an achin' in my heart, and my pocket's full of sand.

D Em A7 D
I'm a long way from home, and I miss my loved one so,

F#m Em A7 D
In the early mornin' rain, with no place to go.

D F#m Em A7 D
Out on runway number nine, big 707 set to go.

Em A7 D
But I'm out here on the grass, where the pavement never grows.

Em A7 D
Well the liquor tasted good, and the women all were fast.

D F#m Em A7 D
There she goes my friend, she's rollin' down at last.

D F#m Em A7 D
Hear the mighty engines roar, see the silver wing on high.
D Em A7 D
She's away and westward bound, far above the clouds she flies.
D Em A7 D
Where the mornin' rain don't fall, and the sun always shines.
D F#m Em A7 D
She'll be flyin' o'er my home, in about three hours time.

D F#m Em A7 D
This old airport's got me down, it's no earthly good to me.
D Em A7 D
Cause I'm stuck here on the ground, cold and drunk as I might be.
D Em A7 D
Can't jump a jet plane, like I can a freight train.
D F#m Em A7 D
So I'd best be on my way, in the early mornin' rain.
D Em A7 D
So I'd best be on my way, in the early mornin' rain.
