

Pretty Fair Maid In The Garden chords by Tim O'Brien

Difficulty: beginner

Tuning: E A D G B E

Capo: 3rd fret

CHORDS

G
Pretty fair maid was in her garden
Em D G
When a stranger came a-riding by
Em C
He came up to the gate and called her
D G
Said pretty fair maid would you be my bride

G
Said I've a true love who's in the army
Em D G
And he's been gone for seven long years
Em C
And if he's gone for seven years longer
D G | C / G / C / D / C / Em / D
I'll still be waiting for him here

G
Perhaps he's on some watercourse drowning
Em D G
Perhaps he's on some battlefield slain
Em C
Perhaps he's to a fair girl married
D G
And you may never see him again

G
Well if he's drowned, I hope he's happy
Em D G
Or if he's on some battlefield slain
Em C
And if he's to some fair girl married
D G | C / G / C / D / C / Em / D
I'll love the girl that married him

G
He took his hand out of his pocket

Em D G
And on his finger he wore a golden ring

Em C
And when she saw that band a-shining

D G
A brand new song her heart did sing

G
And then he threw his arms all around her

Em D G
Kisses gave her one, two, three

Em C
Said I'm your true and loving soldier

D G
That's come back home to marry thee
