CHORDS

[Verse 1]

D G A D G A D
As I rode out one mornin' for pleasure I spied a young cowboy a'ridin' along
D D G A D G A
His hat was thrown back and his spurs was a'jinglin' and as he rode on he was singin' this song

[Chorus]

C D C D
Whoopee ti-yi-yo git along little dogies it's your misfortune and none of my own
G A D G A D
A D
Whoopee ti-yi-yo git along little dogies you know that Wyoming will be your new home

[Verse 2]

D G A D G A
When spring comes along we round up the dogies we stick on their brands and we bob off their tails
D G A D G A D
Kick out the strays that the herd has collected the very next day we go out on the trail

[Chorus]

C D C D
Whoopee ti-yi-yo git along little dogies it's your misfortune and none of my own
G A D G A D
A D
Whoopee ti-yi-yo git along little dogies you know that Wyoming will be your new home

[Instrumental Verse-Chorus]

[Verse 3]

D G A D G A
D
Some folks might think trail ridin's a pleasure if you got that notion you got it dead wrong
D G A D G A D
If I ever got any fun out of trailin' I'd have no good reason for singin' this song

[Chorus]

C D C D
Whoopee ti-yi-yo git along little dogies it's your misfortune and none of my own
G A D G A D
A D
Whoopee ti-yi-yo git along little dogies you know that Wyoming will be your new home

[Chorus]

C D C D
Whoopee ti-yi-yo git along little dogies it's your misfortune and none of my own
G A D G A D
A D Whoopee ti-yi-yo git along little dogies you know that Wyoming will be your new home
